

INTRODUCING A NEW NAME AND A BROADER RANGE

Dear Valued Customer,

ARJO and Huntleigh Healthcare have now successfully merged to form ArjoHuntleigh. The new name reflects the successful fusion of two leading global healthcare companies that will provide customers a broader product range and solutions portfolio, in addition to delivering an enhanced sales and service network.

Customers that are familiar with only ARJO or Huntleigh Healthcare, will find that ArjoHuntleigh will be more adept to provide solutions across the continuum of care. With our broad product portfolio that spans Acute, Long Term and Home Care, ArjoHuntleigh can offer integrated solutions for the care of people with reduced mobility and related conditions in all types of healthcare environments.

We now offer solutions covering these interrelated areas of care:

- Patient Handling – the number 1 provider of patient ceiling, passive and active lifters and disinfection equipment
- Hygiene Systems – the number 1 provider of baths, shower systems and ergonomically designed bathing lift systems
- Therapy & Prevention – therapeutic surfaces, lymphedema and wound healing systems
- Medical Beds – a wide range of bed frames
- Intermittent Pneumatic Compression – the leading provider of products to prevent Deep Vein Thrombosis (DVT)
- Diagnostics – vascular and obstetric assessment and monitoring products
- Bariatric Care – comprehensive solutions for heavier patients and residents
- Diligent™ - value added consulting, clinical and ergonomic services
- Rental Services – a comprehensive range of medical beds and therapeutic surfaces, offered through our nation wide service centers
- Preventative and Repair Service – we provide national coverage 24/7 using our own certified and approved technicians

Our broader product offering and enhanced sales and service structure positions ArjoHuntleigh to be an even stronger partner to help you deliver cost-effective, high quality healthcare.

We look forward to developing a true business partnership with you and helping you to grow your clinical practice in a safe and economic manner. We would like to take this opportunity to confirm or update our contact details (please see below) and to help you explore new possibilities with ArjoHuntleigh.
